

OLIVIA RICHARDSON

Bio

Olivia Richardson is a graduating senior from Tri-Cities High School (TCHS) in East Point, GA, Class of 2023.

Olivia was introduced to the agriculture of food through the TCHS Culinary Arts Department under the instruction of Program Director, Chef Cheryl Williams through a school partnership with Metro Atlanta Urban Farm (MAUF).

Olivia's interest in agriculture education was piqued during an agriculture summer camp that she attended at Prairie View A & M University.

After returning from the agriculture summer camp, Olivia decided to change her career goals. She now plans to major in agricultural science upon graduation from Tri-Cities High School.

Olivia has become a youth ambassador for agricultural education, sharing her interest and her passion whenever and wherever the opportunity arises.
