

CK Hoffler

Trial Attorney & 76th President of the National Bar Association

President Hoffler, the CEO of the Atlanta-based The CK Hoffler Firm, is a seasoned trial lawyer known for civil rights activism and litigation magnetism.

Hoffler charted a vision to fight three pandemics plaguing communities of Black and Brown people and America's justice system making it her administration's priority to tackle COVID-19, Police Brutality, and Election Suppression head-on. Through Hoffler's efforts and connections, the NBA has partnered with other coalition groups to fight these three pandemics including the National Medical Association, the Transformative Justice Coalition, the NAACP, the Lawyers' Committee on Civil Rights, and Rainbow Push Coalition, to name a few.

Hoffler has been a member of the NBA since she was a law student at Georgetown University and notes the important role of young lawyers in meeting the NBA's mission. President Hoffler's vast experience in social justice includes serving as the Chair of the Board for Rainbow PUSH, legal representative to civil rights legend Rev. Jesse Jackson, Sr. and his family for nearly 30 years, and advocating for global human rights through social justice and lawyer organizations.

Hoffler's remarkable legal career is one to be applauded. She specializes in representing plaintiffs in trucking accidents, medical malpractice, wrongful death, catastrophic personal injury, civil rights litigation, commercial litigation, employment discrimination, opioid litigation and global commercial transactions. Hoffler is licensed in 5 states including Georgia, Florida, Virginia, DC, and Pennsylvania. To date, President Hoffler has tried and/or settled cases totaling over $800 million. An accomplished attorney, Hoffler was previously a partner at Edmond, Lindsay & Hoffler, LLP and a partner at Gary, Williams et al. in Florida. While a partner at Gary, Williams et al., she ran the commercial and international litigation practice for Willie Gary for 12 years. Hoffler also lectures extensively on trial strategies and winning trial techniques throughout the nation.

Hoffler brings a diverse set of skills and talents to the practice of law and to the NBA. She speaks French fluently and is proficient in Spanish and Portuguese. Hoffler has extensive international professional work experience throughout Africa, Europe and the Caribbean. She has represented foreign interests and foreign governments and lobbied on behalf of various foreign countries while in practice in Washington, DC.

Hoffler was educated in Switzerland (College du Lemman, University of Geneva), Canada (Branksome Hall), and the United States. She received her law degree from Georgetown University and her undergraduate degree from Smith College. A service-oriented attorney, Hoffler's community involvement includes active participation in pro bono law clinics, extensive lecturing on First Amendment matters, women's issues, children's concerns and international matters. She was intricately involved in the merit retention efforts related to the Florida Supreme Court and successfully co-chaired Florida Supreme Court Justice Peggy Quince's campaign for merit retention.

